

May12 at UCI

Women in Mathematics Community Reception

An informal networking gathering to connect, celebrate, and build community

DATE

Tuesday,
May 12, 2026

TIME

5:00–6:30 PM

LOCATION

CALIT2

Join us for a warm, informal gathering to sustain and celebrate the community of women in mathematics at UCI. We will make space for conversation across career stages, build new connections, and share encouragement in a welcoming mathematical community.

Who is welcome?

This event centers women in mathematics and warmly welcomes UCI undergraduate students, graduate students, postdocs, faculty, staff, alumni, and supporters of all genders who are committed to an inclusive mathematical community.

RSVP: <https://forms.gle/4U4wySc1i47WiV5N6>

Light refreshments will be served. RSVP helps us plan food.

Please respond by Sunday night 5/10.

Part of the worldwide May12 initiative, a joyful annual celebration of women in mathematics. May12 encourages open, welcoming, and inclusive mathematical communities.
